A search bar and icons for cart, heart, and user are also present. The main content area includes a large image of the tent footprint on the left and a forest scene on the right. Below this, a 'Product information' section explains the footprint's purpose: 'A footprint is an external groundsheet for extra protection when pitching your tent on uneven, stony and dirty grounds. It will also protect the tent against condensation from the ground, it will increase the overall comfort level and make your tent last longer. The video show how easy it is to attach the footprint. We use a Ringstind, but it is done the same way on all tents. It doesn't matter where you start, but we recommend on the opposite end of an entrance, as that will make it easier to stretch it out.' Underneath, the 'MADE FOR' section lists 'Overnight'. At the bottom, there are expandable sections for 'Technical specifications' and 'FAQ', and a 'Support' button.
